Our Purpose

Beyond transactions, our family-oriented team prioritises understanding each client's unique needs, capable of fulfilling large orders without sacrificing authenticity or quality.

Dreamtime Kullilla-Art, founded by Michael and Jo Connolly, has grown from a small operation to an enterprise with large warehouse capacity, enhancing our capabilities to support major clients in both the public and private sectors.

Our purpose is to ensure the authenticity and integrity of Indigenous art in corporate and government sectors. We prioritise genuine connections with Indigenous artists, promoting cultural respect and understanding. Through this commitment, we aim to provide our clients with authentic, meaningful artworks and experiences that foster a deep appreciation for Indigenous cultures and traditions.

Dreamtime Kullilla-Art is committed to protecting Indigenous artists' rights and guaranteeing the supply of genuine materials.
